

COURSE NUMBERING

Graduate courses are numbered at the 800- or 900-level. Courses numbered "800P" may have an undergraduate counterpart numbered at the 400-level or may be taught by non-graduate faculty. (These 400-numbered courses are listed in the undergraduate catalog.)

Courses numbered 800 (without the "P") are designated primarily for study beyond the bachelor's degree or towards a Master's degree. One half of a student's Master's degree must be numbered with 800 (non-P) courses.

Courses numbered at the 900-level are designated primarily for study beyond the Master's Degree.
