

NATIONAL STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM

The University of Nebraska at Kearney participates in the National Student Exchange which is a consortium of nearly 200 state-supported colleges and universities. UNK students can attend, for up to one academic year, an institution of higher learning in another area of the United States. In bringing together students from different parts of the country, the program encourages participants to broaden their academic, social and cultural awareness. Credits are recorded back at the home campus as a part of the student's regular transcript.

To qualify, a participant must:

1. be a full-time student;
2. have at least sophomore standing during the exchange; and
3. have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5.

For more information about this opportunity for educational travel and study in a new environment, contact the National Student Exchange Program Coordinator, Office of Student Affairs (studentaffairs@unk.edu).