

NEW STUDENT ENROLLMENT

---

All first-time freshman at the University of Nebraska at Kearney are required to attend New Student Enrollment (NSE). During NSE, students meet individually with academic advisors to select classes and register for the upcoming semester. Parents or guardians are encouraged to participate and to learn about UNK's academic expectations and methods to maintain academic success. NSE for the fall semester runs in the month of June, with reservations starting in early spring.