MLSC 101 – Foundations of Officership  1 credit hour
This course addresses the issues and competencies central to a commissioned officer's core responsibilities and to leadership in general. Life skills that are addressed specifically are values, physical fitness, time management, stress management and decision making processes. (Military membership is not required nor is any military obligation incurred.) MLSC 101L is required with this course. Department Consent Required
Prerequisite: MLSC 101 or permission of instructor.
Corequisite: MLSC 101.

MLSC 101L – Leadership Laboratory I  1 credit hour
This lab provides challenging, hands on learning environment through practical exercises and activities in military officership skill development. Students will develop confidence and learn the importance of teamwork in goal accomplishment. Activities may include rappelling, land navigation and map reading, rifle marksmanship, survival training, personal defense, survival swimming, military weapons, military drill, and first aid. (Military membership is not required nor is any military obligation incurred.) MLSC 101L is required with this course. Prerequisite: MLSC 101 or permission of instructor.

MLSC 102 – Basic Leadership  1 credit hour
This course is a study of the foundations of leadership. Students will gain an understanding of problem solving, communications, military briefings, effective writing, goal setting, physical well-being, and techniques for improving listening, speaking and counseling. (Military membership is not required nor is any military obligation incurred.) MLSC 102L is required with this course. Prerequisite: MLSC 102L

MLSC 102L – Leadership Laboratory II  1 credit hour
This lab allows students to observe and participate in challenging, hands on learning environment through practical exercises and activities in military officership skill development. Students will develop confidence and learn the importance of teamwork in goal accomplishment. Activities may include land navigation and map reading, survival training, personal defense, military weapons, military drill, first aid, tactics, and squad level exercises. (Military membership is not required nor is any military obligation incurred.) MLSC 102L is required with this course. Prerequisite: MLSC 102 or permission of instructor.

MLSC 201 – Individual Leadership Studies  2 credit hours
This course is a study of the functions, duties and responsibilities of junior leaders through the assignment of team leader positions within the cadet corps chain of command. Emphasis is on the application of leadership skills in both military and civilian leadership roles. Leadership skills including communications, effective writing, leadership core competencies, military briefings, advanced land navigation and map reading, and leadership styles are addressed. (Military membership is not required nor is any military obligation incurred.) MLSC 201L is required with this course. Prerequisite: MLSC 101 or MLSC 102 or permission of instructor.

MLSC 201L – Leadership Laboratory III  1 credit hour
Second year leadership lab continues the development of confidence, military skills, and a sense of teamwork. Students will be assigned junior leadership roles within the cadet corps chain of command for practical experience on activities and exercises. Corequisite: MLSC 201.

MLSC 202 – Leadership and Teamwork  2 credit hours
A study of the fundamental leadership techniques used to build effective teams. Activities and study will center of the role of the commissioned officer and non-commissioned officer in leadership. This course will also include the study of effective communications within groups, creativity in problem solving and how to motivate subordinates and peers. These skills will be applied in the context of military environments such as Army tactics, squad level exercises, team level exercises and land navigation and map reading. All students will be evaluated on leadership skills in a mentoring environment for further development. (Military membership is not required nor is any military obligation incurred.) Prerequisite: MLSC 201 or permission of instructor.

MLSC 202L – Leadership Laboratory IV  1 credit hour
Second-year leadership laboratory continues to be the development of confidence, military skills and a sense of teamwork. Maybe selected to fill leadership positions in the cadet corps. The variety of activities parallels those during the first year of the laboratory. (Military membership is not required nor is any military obligation incurred.)

MLSC 203 – Leadership and Ethics  2 credit hours
This course will use advanced small unit operations and tactical communications to improve student leadership skills. Students will explore the role of communications, values, and ethics in effective leadership. Students will also investigate ethical decision making, consideration of others, spirituality in the military and Army leadership doctrine. Additionally, students will improve written and oral communications by preparing and issuing operations orders and will receive direct feedback on leadership abilities. Total Credits Allowed: 4.00 Prerequisite: MLSC 301 or permission of instructor.

MLSC 301 – Leadership and Problem Solving  2 credit hours
MLSC 301L – Leadership Laboratory V  1 credit hour
This leadership laboratory consist of placement in leadership positions within the cadet corps organization, providing a greater challenge while building on the confidence and skills developed during the MLSC 101, 102, 201, 202. Concentration of physical conditioning and the furthering of military skills development particularly with respect to small unit tactics and individual military weapons. Practical exercises in preparation for summer Leadership Development and Assessment Course and leadership responsibilities of the final year. Total Credits Allowed: 2.00 Corequisite: MLSC 301

MLSC 302 – Leadership and Ethics  2 credit hours
MLSC 302L – Leadership Laboratory VI  1 credit hour
This leadership laboratory consist of placement in leadership positions within the cadet corps organization, providing a greater challenge while building on the confidence and skills developed during the MLSC 101, 102, 201, 202, 301. Concentration of physical conditioning and the furthering of military skills development particularly with respect to small unit tactics and individual military weapons. Practical exercises in preparation for summer Leadership Development and Assessment Course and leadership responsibilities of the final year. Total Credits Allowed: 2.00 Corequisite: MLSC 302.
MLSC 336 – ROTC Internship  6 credit hours
This course grants academic credit for participation at LDAC in Ft. Lewis, Washington. LDAC consists of practical application of cadet leadership and academic knowledge. First aid, survival training, and physical conditioning techniques are also evaluated in a military environment using equipment and resources not available on campus. LDAC is conducted during the summer session and lasts four weeks. Department Consent Required

MLSC 399 – Independent Study  1-3 credit hours
Academic credit can also be earned by successful completion of four weeks of summer leadership training at the Leader's Training Course, Ft. Knox, Kentucky. Opportunity to expand study of the Army beyond the levels presented in programmed courses. Studies may approach military leadership, military history or contemporary issues from a broad perspective or more narrowly defined in-depth analysis. Department Consent Required
Total Credits Allowed: 6.00

MLSC 401 – Developing Adaptive Leaders  2 credit hours
This course develops the student and his/her proficiencies in planning and executing complex operations, functioning as a member of a battalion staff and mentoring subordinates. The course focuses on training management, methods of effective staff collaboration, and developmental counseling techniques. Professionalism and ethics provide the student with opportunities to assess risk and make ethical decisions. Prerequisite: MLSC 302

MLSC 401L – Leadership Laboratory VII  1 credit hour
This leadership laboratory provides the opportunity to practice leadership and manager skills through practical application. Leadership laboratory programs are developed, planned, and conducted by the students registered in this laboratory. Total Credits Allowed: 2.00 Corequisite: MLSC 401.

MLSC 402 – Leadership in a Complex World  2 credit hours
This course includes case study analysis of military law and practical exercises in establishing an ethical command climate. Students will complete a semester-long Senior Leadership Project that requires: planning, organizing, collaborating, analyzing and demonstrating leadership skills. This course will prepare the student for Basic Officer Leader Courses II & III and for leadership in complex situations in the contemporary operating environment. Prerequisite: MLSC 401

MLSC 402L – Leadership Laboratory VIII  1 credit hour
This leadership laboratory provides the opportunity to practice leadership and manager skills through practical application. Leadership laboratory programs are developed, planned, and conducted by the students registered in this laboratory. Total Credits Allowed: 2.00 Corequisite: MLSC 402.

MLSC 403 – Military Leadership and Management  3 credit hours
This course develops the leadership skills expected of junior officers. Learning will focus on the heritage and history of the military, improvement of communicative skills, ethics, military intelligence, and management of supply activities. Students will also function as a member of a staff which is responsible for mentoring subordinates and managing training conducted in leadership labs.

MLSC 404 – Military Officercship  3 credit hours
This course develops the skills, attitudes, and knowledge required of a second lieutenant. Learning will focus on military justice, Army operations and tactics, and the use of indirect fire in Army operations. Students will also understand the structure and function of an Army staff and participate as a member of a battalion staff. Prerequisite: MLSC 403

MLSC 499 – Independent Study  1-3 credit hours
Academic credit can also be earned by successful completion of professional development programs such as Airborne, Air Assault, Northern Warfare, Mountain Warfare or Cadet Troop Leading Training. Opportunity to expand study of the Army beyond the levels presented in programmed courses. Studies may approach military leadership, military history or contemporary issues from a broad perspective or more narrowly defined in-depth analysis. Department Consent Required
Total Credits Allowed: 6.00