FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Authority to set tuition rates is vested in the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska. The tuition rates which apply to any succeeding fiscal year will not be known until June of each year. The Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska, therefore, reserves the right to change tuition and fee schedules and related policies, including the time, date, and method for payment, at any time.

By registering for a course, a student acknowledges legal and financial responsibility for any and all tuition and fees assessed as a result of registration. Students must follow, and are financially responsible for, formal add/drop and withdrawal procedures. Non-attendance does not relieve a student of financial responsibility.

It is the responsibility of students to satisfy all financial obligations to the University of Nebraska at Kearney. UNK will not register a student, release a diploma or proof of degree, or provide official transcripts to any current or former student who has past due financial obligations to UNK.
