Health Sciences:

- Fall admission only. Application deadline: April 15th

Athletic Training:

- Traditional Track Fall admission only. Application deadline: June 1st
- Nontraditional Track Fall admission only. Application deadline: April 1st

All degree-seeking applicants must:

1. Submit a formal application for admission electronically and pay the application fee, if applicable.
2. Unofficial transcripts may be uploaded with the application. Once admitted official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate course work are required prior to enrollment and must be requested directly from any University or College attended previously. Electronic transcript should be sent to gradstudies@unk.edu or paper transcripts to: Graduate Studies, 1910 University Drive, Communication Center, Kearney, NE 68849. NU transcripts (UNO, UNL, UNMC and UNK) are obtained internally unless an academic or financial hold is on the account. By virtue of submitting an application, applicant is providing consent for internal access to these academic records.

3. Comply with departmental admission requirements.

When all materials are submitted, the Office of Graduate Studies will conduct an initial evaluation. Complete applicant files meeting the requirements for admission will be forwarded to the appropriate department for their consideration and recommendation. Following receipt of the departmental recommendation, the Office of Graduate Studies will notify the applicant of the action taken and admission status. To stay active in the program, students must not have a lapse of enrollment longer than two calendar years and all coursework towards a degree must be completed within 10 years of the first day of enrollment.
