DENIAL OF ADMISSION

There is no right to a due process hearing with respect to denial of admission of a graduate student. Therefore, there is no need for an appeal procedure for applicants of graduate programs.