Master of Arts in English

The Master of Arts (M.A.) in English at UNK offers students the opportunity to study literature; composition, rhetoric, and language; childhood and youth studies; and creative writing. Graduate courses are offered as seminars, workshops, and directed readings. Our M.A. serves active, in-service teachers who seek graduate credit or a graduate degree to deepen their knowledge and advance their careers; students who wish to pursue a Ph.D. in English; creative writers sharpening and refining their skills for publication or for an MFA program; and students planning careers in editing, publication, professional and technical writing, and business.

Admission Process

Departmental admission to the Graduate program is based on transcripts, a 1-2 page letter of interest, a 10 page writing sample, two letters of recommendation, and the appropriate application forms (including indication of desired degree option). The Graduate Committee of the Department of English will weigh (and in some circumstances waive) these documents in the best interest of the program and the applicant. A student interested in pursuing a degree program in English should

1. Meet the requirements for admission¹ set by the Office of Graduate Studies and Academic Outreach.
2. Submit an official undergraduate transcript to the Office of Graduate Studies and Academic Outreach showing at least 18 semester hours in upper division (300-400 level) courses in English Studies (literature, writing, linguistics, etc.).
3. Submit an online application to the Office of Graduate Studies and Academic Outreach.
4. Submit a writing sample: the writing sample should be related to an aspect of English studies and 10 pages in length (for creative writing, 5 pages creative writing and 5 pages critical/analytical writing; for all other interest areas, 10 pages critical/analytical writing). If you do not currently have a writing sample available to submit and need suggestions for a prompt to create one, you may use the following: Please write a critical/analytical essay examining an idea of "place" through at least two literary texts. Your choice of place can be broadly or narrowly construed: a room, home, a woods, a city (specified or not), an island, nation, etc., can all be "places."
5. Submit two letters of recommendation.
6. Submit a 1-2 page letter of interest outlining motivation for post-graduate study at UNK, previous work in the discipline, particular English studies and/or literary interests, and educational goals.

Graduate College Degree Requirements

A student's Program of Study must include at least half or more hours of 800-level courses.

At the graduate level, credit/no credit courses must be a function of the course and not a choice of the student. Only 6 hours of credit/no credit courses may be applied toward a Master of Arts degree.

Students must either complete a comprehensive examination or write a thesis, and the results must be filed with the Office of Graduate Studies and Academic Outreach at least four weeks before graduation date.

English Department Degree Requirements

At least half of the course work must be completed in non-P courses.

1

In the absence of any of the above, admission may be granted on a conditional basis.
