UNK Police partners with students, faculty, staff and visitors to provide a safe, protected and orderly environment. This is to include, but not limited to, enforcing all University policies, state, federal and local laws, providing security, crime prevention resources, the safe walk service, and monitoring campus parking. Officers are trained through the Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Academy and are commissioned as State Deputy Sheriffs giving them full arrest powers. For more detailed information concerning UNK Police, go to their website (<http://unk.edu/police/>).

Parking Regulations Summary

Through the Board of Regents, UNK is authorized to establish and enforce parking regulations and levy penalties to control parking. In order to regulate parking, permits are sold starting the first week in July at the Parking Services Office in the General Services Building or the Finance Office in Warner Hall. For information regarding permits, fees, and other parking regulations go to: www.unk.edu/parkingrules (<http://unk.edu/parkingrules/>). Parking Division phone number: (308) 865-8367

Crisis Management Immediate Resources

The Division of Student Affairs Office assists students, faculty, and staff with any issues or concerns that may affect a student's ability to succeed at UNK. Concern for a student may require referral to other resources for specific attention. For available resources, refer to the CARE Team web page at www.unk.edu/student_affairs/care-team.php (http://www.unk.edu/student_affairs/care-team.php). For immediate assistance call UNK Police at (308) 865-8911 or 911.
