

BACHELOR OF GENERAL STUDIES PROGRAM

The Bachelor of General Studies is an interdisciplinary program that promotes study in a wide range of disciplines - the arts, foreign languages, humanities, natural sciences, social sciences, and professional studies - that enable the student to develop a broad view, a capacity for critical thinking, and a fundamental understanding of human nature, society and values. It should not be confused with the General Studies Program (<http://catalog.unk.edu/undergraduate/general-studies/>), which is a required component in all undergraduate degree programs.

Students completing the interdisciplinary, undergraduate BGS program will demonstrate:

- An understanding of the core knowledge of the distribution areas
- The ability to find relevant data and use it in appropriate ways
- The ability to read and comprehend literature appropriate to the distribution areas
- The ability to write in a manner appropriate to the distribution areas

For more information contact:

Amy Rundstrom, Director of Academic Advising and Career Development
University of Nebraska at Kearney
Kearney, NE 68849

See the Bachelor of General Studies (<http://catalog.unk.edu/undergraduate/academics/degrees/bgs/>) program requirements.