DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WORK

Mission Statement
The Social Work Department at the University of Nebraska at Kearney will prepare competent social work practitioners. Our graduates will be equipped with evidence-based generalist social work knowledge, skills, ethics and values to promote the dignity and well-being of all people within a diverse society.

Department Goals
1. Equip students with core competencies for beginning generalist social work practice that enables them to work with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
2. Prepare students for lifelong learning and the application of critical thinking to guide professional decision-making by combining a liberal arts foundation with social work education.
3. Prepare students to develop a professional identity, which will incorporate the knowledge, skills, values, and ethical principles of the social work profession that are crucial for the advancement of human rights, and economic and social justice.
4. Prepare students for evidence-based practice with diverse and marginalized populations.
5. Prepare students as beginning social work generalist practitioners who are engaged in research informed practice and practice informed research.

The Social Work Department is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. The department does not grant academic credit for life experience or previous work experience. Social Work students are expected to work closely with their advisor to ensure that General Studies and major requirements are taken in the right sequence.

Social Work Major
One option is available in this major:

1. Social Work Comprehensive (http://catalog.unk.edu/undergraduate/departments-programs/social-work/social-work-comprehensive-bs/) - Bachelor of Science Degree

The Social Work (http://catalog.unk.edu/undergraduate/departments-programs/social-work/social-work-minor/) minor is available and recommended for students pursuing majors in other helping professions or human services.

Social Work (SOWK)
SOWK 170 – Introduction to Social Welfare  3 credit hours
The course explores the foundation and principles of social welfare in American society. The spectrum of social welfare programs and issues are examined with emphasis on the contexts that shape them and the impact they have on vulnerable and underrepresented groups.

SOWK 172 – Human Service Ethics and Experience  3 credit hours
This course presents the values and ethical principles that underlie social work and other human service professions. Course requirements include the completion of a 50 hours volunteer work experience at a human service program in the community. Students are advised to complete the course early in their program of study.

SOWK 388 – GS Capstone  3 credit hours
An interdisciplinary experience where students apply the knowledge, cognitive abilities, and communication skills they have gained from General Studies in designing and completing an original project or paper. Students employ methods and interpretive means of two or more disciplines to integrate knowledge and synthesize their results. Satisfies the General Studies capstone course requirement. Students may take their Capstone course in any discipline.
Prerequisite: Junior or senior level standing or within 6 hours of completing general studies requirements.

SOWK 400 – Human Behavior in the Social Environment  3 credit hours
This course analyzes human behavior in the social environment from a life-span developmental approach from conception through adulthood. The theories, which emphasize biological, psychological, sociological, spiritual and cultural aspects of the individual are examined. A systems approach is combined with an ecological perspective to analyze social conditions and to identify problem areas in society.
Prerequisite: SOWK 170

SOWK 410 – Social Policy & Programs  3 credit hours
The course examines the historical evolution of Social policy, value assumptions, as well as the social, political, and economic contexts and processes that impact it. Students learn the skills required for analysis of policies and advocacy for social and economic justice.
Prerequisite: SOWK 170

SOWK 420 – Diversity and Social Justice  3 credit hours
The course examines cultural, social, and economic diversity; the role of social institutions and social, political, and cultural processes as they relate to discrimination and oppression based on race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, social class and disability status.

SOWK 440 – Fundamentals of Research in Social Welfare  3 credit hours
This course will introduce students to the concepts and principles of social work research methodology, educate them about the ethics and politics involved, and promote their understanding of research issues relevant to diversity, multiculturalism, as well as social and economic injustices.
Prerequisite: PSY 250 or STAT 235 or STAT 241

SOWK 441 – Social Work Practice with Individuals & Families  3 credit hours
This course provides a foundation for generalist social work practice with individuals and families using a problem solving approach within a systems framework.
Prerequisite: Minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 and SOWK 400 and SOWK 410.

The course expands on the generalist practice foundation and skills gained in SOWK 371 and focuses on social work practice with task and therapy groups.

Prerequisite: SOWK Majors - Cumulative GPA of 2.5 or above and a grade of "C" or above, and in SOWK 441 CSP LADC Certificate Program - minimum GPA of 2.5 and successful completion of CSP 417 LADC certificate students should enroll in SOWK 442 during spring semester.

This course focuses on macro social work with organizations, communities, state, and federal entities. It examines the models of community planning and organization with emphasis on individual and community empowerment and modifications of institutional structures. Program development, social planning, and administration of social agencies are taught and issues of equity and social justice issues related to populations at risk such as minorities, elderly, and women are explored. Prerequisite: Minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 and completion of SOWK 441 and SOWK 442 with a grade of C or better

This course prepares students to conduct generalist practice with members of the Latino community. The course focuses on psychosocial and health problems in alignment with social and cultural factors. Students will examine various Latino cultures, including Mexican Americans, Puerto Ricans, Cubans, Central Americans, etc. and examine the impact of culture and generalist social work practice with members of the Latino community in the United States. Core social science theories and frameworks such as acculturation and ethnic identity development will be covered. Students will also explore the relevance and utilization of cultural competence and cultural humility when working with members of the Latino community. Special emphasis will be placed on current social issues that members of the Latino community may be facing such as immigration control, access to services in Spanish, and other topics. Prerequisite: SPAN 205 and at least one SOWK course.

A theoretical framework grounded in the social welfare values of self-determination and dignity across the lifespan is used to explore diverse issues in the disabilities field including demographics, etiology and policies, social welfare programs and community resources, and the role of social workers in serving people with disabilities.

This course enables students to develop a broader understanding of the occurrence and impact of mental illness in society and from a social work perspective. Mental health issues across race, class, gender, and culture will be examined with the goal of promoting practice skills and sensitivity to future clients.

This summer experience takes students to foreign countries and immerses them into the social, cultural, political, and economic environment that impact citizens there. Policy issues and human rights are emphasized, compared to the American system, and assessed for support or hindrance of general wellbeing especially related to at-risk and underrepresented groups. Department Consent Required

Total Credits Allowed: 6.00
SOWK 480 – Field Placement I  3 credit hours
The complete field placement experience, SOWK 480 & 481, consists of 400 actual contact hours of supervised experience in an approved social service agency, along with scheduled group seminar meetings with the field placement coordinator. The field placement experience allows students to integrate the theoretical foundation and skills gained throughout their academic preparation with practice in a supervised professional setting. A field placement application and approval process must be completed prior to enrollment in this course. This course represents the first 200 hours and involves an orientation to the agency, observing and learning the structure of the agency, and the integration of classroom content with practicum experiences.

SOWK 481 – Field Placement II  3 credit hours
The complete field placement experience, SOWK 480 & 481, consists of 400 actual contact hours of supervised experience in an approved social service agency, along with scheduled group seminar meetings with the field placement coordinator. The field placement experience allows students to integrate the theoretical foundation and skills gained throughout their academic preparation with practice in a supervised professional setting. A field placement application and approval process must be completed prior to enrollment in this course. This course represents the second 200 hours and involves actual hands on participation where students are expected to demonstrate a higher level of skills and an increased responsibility for their learning and performance.

SOWK 482 – Senior Social Work Seminar  3 credit hours
This course is designed as an integrating seminar to be taken concurrently with Field Placement. It facilitates the transition from student to professional social worker practice. Assignments build on the field placement experience to promote the integration of knowledge, skills, and values.
Prerequisite: SOWK 442 and permission of Field Coordinator.
Corequisite: SOWK 480 and SOWK 481.

SOWK 490 – Special Topics in Social Work  1-3 credit hours
This course examines emerging topics in social work or current issues that are not currently covered in existing social work courses. The format and assignments associated with the course will vary depending on the topic, instructor, and the needs of the students.
Total Credits Allowed: 6.00
Prerequisite: SOWK 170

SOWK 499 – Special Studies in Social Work  1-3 credit hours
An in-depth study of contemporary social work practice issues. The project is supervised by the director. This course may be repeated to a maximum of six hours.
Total Credits Allowed: 6.00
Prerequisite: 6 hours of Social Work and permission of the director
