FACILITIES

There are 49 buildings on the 514-acre campus of UNK. The major buildings are:

William E. Bruner Hall of Science
Built in 1966, the original Bruner Hall of Science footprint was 84,900 gross square feet, but in 1987 a 15,320 GSF Lecture Hall added three additional levels. In 2004 deferred maintenance renovations upgraded building systems at a cost of $6.4 million. In 2009 a $14 million renovation addressed the upgrade of 47,000 GSF, the razing of Mary Morse Lecture Hall and the construction of a 17,800 GSF new addition. The renovation upgraded and enhanced teaching and research labs and support spaces within the existing building. The addition features a new planetarium and offices for the Health Science Programs (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/health-science-programs), classrooms and student lounge space. Other departments occupying the building are Biology (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/biology), Chemistry (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/chemistry) and Physics (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/physics-astronomy) and Astronomy (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/physics-astronomy).

Calvin T. Ryan Library
This building was erected in 1963. An addition in 1983 doubled the size of the facility. The Learning Commons (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/student-affairs/learning-commons) (which includes Subject Tutoring and the Writing Center) is housed in the Library. The attached Mitchell Center includes radio and television broadcasting facilities and houses the Communication Department (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/communication) and Antelope Newspaper offices.

College of Education Building
Completed in 2002, the College of Education Building is a 50,000 square foot building with state-of-the-art technology. The building has been designed with the needs of teaching and clinical education as its focus. Six large classrooms are equipped with electronic teaching stations, wireless computer capabilities and the potential for computer-assisted teaching in a variety of teaching configurations. Fifty faculty offices are provided for the departments of Counseling and School Psychology (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/counseling-school-psychology), Communication Disorders (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/communication-disorders), Educational Administration and Teacher Education (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/teacher-education), along with other spaces for the Dean of Education, advising, teacher certification activities, and administrative support.

Communications Center Building
Part of the former State Hospital complex acquired in 1972, this renovated building is used by University Communications & Marketing on the first level, Video Services on the second level and eCampus on the third level.

Copeland Hall
Built and used as the campus gymnasium from 1918 to 1961, this building was used for offices and classes until 1995 when a classroom addition was built. The original building was renovated in 1996 and now houses the Departments of Sociology (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/sociology), Geography and Earth Science (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/geography); History (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/history); and Psychology (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/psychology).

Cushing Health, Physical Education and Recreation Facility
Originally constructed in 1961, this facility has undergone extensive renovation. The renovated building houses classrooms, offices, laboratories, locker facilities, an indoor running track, racquetball, tennis, basketball and volleyball courts. These facilities service recreation and intramural programs in addition to space for intercollegiate athletic teams and the Department of Kinesiology and Sport Sciences (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/kinesiology-sport-sciences).

In August 2014, the $6.5 million Wellness Center opened in the northeast corner of Cushing Coliseum. It is a modern 19,000-square-foot facility that features a Physical Activity and Wellness Lab, a large fitness center and rock climbing wall.

Facilities Building (http://www.unk.edu/offices/facilities)
This brick structure houses offices and work areas for Facilities Management and Planning and UNK Police.

Fine Arts Building
This building houses the department of Music, Theatre and Dance (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/music-theatre-dance). It opened in January, 1970, and in 1979 a wing was added to house the Department of Art and Design (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/departments-programs/art-design) and the Walker Art Gallery. The Fine Arts Recital Hall and Miriam Drake Theatre on the first level and the Studio Theatre on the lower level provide space for student and faculty performances.

G. W. Frank Museum of History & Culture (http://www.unk.edu/offices/frankhouse)
The Frank Museum is located in one of the largest mansions built during Kearney’s 19th century industrial boom. Completed in 1890, the home of George and Phoebe Frank was notable for its opulence and modernity, featuring hand-carved oak woodwork, electric lighting, indoor plumbing, steam heating, large fireplaces, and other modern amenities. Following Kearney’s collapse in the mid-1890s, the building served as both a private sanitarium and the residency for the Nebraska State Hospital for the Tubercular (now the West Campus of UNK). Today, the museum’s
The Museum of Nebraska Art (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/academics/academic-resources/#mona)

Located on the Bricks in downtown Kearney, the Museum of Nebraska Art (MONA) is housed in a beautifully renovated 1911 Renaissance revival building listed on the National Register of Historic Places, providing an ideal setting for its collection of over 6,000 works. Dedicated to telling the story of Nebraska through the art of Nebraska, MONA exhibits the work of a distinguished and diverse group of artists with a tie to Nebraska or by artists from around the world who have depicted Nebraska subjects. Originally a Post Office, the building was remodeled and expanded in 1993 and includes an outdoor sculpture garden. The UNK community of students, faculty, and staff visit and are welcomed to MONA for a variety of classes, programs, and activities.

The Nebraskan Student Union

This building was opened in 1964. A major renovation and addition was completed in 2002 adding 25,000 square feet. In 2018, a $6 million renovation was completed to the space creating improved dining and meeting spaces. The Nebraskan houses union administrative offices, the Office of Multicultural Affairs (http://catalog.unk.edu/catalog-archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/student-affairs/multicultural-affairs) as well as student activity offices, UNK food service operations, the campus bookstore and conference space.

Ockinga Seminar Center

This building was built as a gift from the Clara Ockinga estate and provides two seminar rooms used by the University and the public as well as the office of International Education (http://unkcms.unk.edu/academics/international_studies).

Otto Olsen Building

UNK has 10 traditional residence halls and Village Flats apartments to accommodate students residing on campus. Mantor, Randall, URN, URS & Men's hall have traditional double rooms with shared bathrooms on each floor. CTE & CTW is a semi-suite residence hall with a private bathroom shared between two rooms. Antelope & Nester Hall has 2 & 4 person suites with kitchenette, living area and bathrooms shared in a suite environment while allowing students to have individual bedrooms. Village Flats apartments serve as a housing option for married students, students' with families or non-traditional age students. Each apartment has a kitchen, living area and bathroom. Students are able to choose from a one or two bedroom apartment.
